

Terex Parts

Terex Parts - Terex Forklifts takes immense pride in developing quality equipment that helps better their customers' efficiency while standing by their mission to offer a cost effective yet consistent product line. Through many divestures and acquisitions designed to expand the product offering, Terex has a short time ago expanded dramatically. They have enhanced their geographic coverage to enable them to supply quality standards and value for their broad consumer base.

Remaining a aggressive player in the industrial equipment sector, Terex is forming a franchise under the Terex brand name. The company is incorporating their previous brand names for some of their parts in conjunction business the Terex brand name for a smooth transition process. Presently, Terex goods are principally marketed under the Terex name. A few of the following historic name brands and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has shown steady growth, purchasing PPM Cranes, in 1995 while divesting Clark Material Handling in 1995. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Terex quickly grew their mining and Crane operations with the acquisition of O&K mining, TerexLift, Gru Comedil, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Construction business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They quickly became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by buying Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane manufacturers were also added to Terex in 1999.

By the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment industry, buying Fermac who is a producer specializing in tractor loader backhoes. Their Light Construction business continued to expand business with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

In 2001, Terex expanded their Roadbuilding division business with the acquisitions of CMI, Bid-Well, Load King, Atlas and Jaques.

A small number of the acquisitions that took place in 2002 helped allow Terex to develop into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped propel Terex into the concrete mixing market, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane market. Buying German suppliers Fuchs and Schaeff positioned Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment category. Genie became a leading manufacturer of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed business with the purchases of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which provided company-owned circulation for Terex Utilities.

Tatra, a producer of heavy-duty vehicles intended for on and off-road commercial and military applications were acquired in 2003. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year allowed Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities supply.

In 2004, Terex acquired Reedrill, a manufacturer of surface drilling technologies for application within the construction, utility and mining markets. Noble CE, which was referred to as Terex Mexico was also acquired this year. They produce high capacity surface mining trucks and also produce several components for other Terex businesses.
